Online Faculty Evaluations

What does it get you?

- A chance to provide ANONYMOUS feedback to your instructor.
- Help to improve the overall instruction available at UF.
- You can view past evaluation results before registering for classes.

How do evaluations help your instructor?

- Helps with course planning
- Career development—annual reviews, tenure and promotion decisions, and salary increases are all affected by evaluations
- Shows student perspective

Things to remember...

- If you are auditing the class, you cannot evaluate the class.
- If you drop a class, you cannot evaluate the class.
- If the class size is 10 students or less, the Department may or may not decide to have the class evaluated.
- You can review past evaluation results before registering for classes at evaluations.ufl.edu/results
